

Pentominoes Game

How to play

A pentomino is made up of five equal squares joined together along a whole straight edge. Each pentomino can be fitted together to make one big shape.

Carefully cut out the pentomino tiles and arrange them on the blank grid so there are no tiles that overlap and no spaces on the grid. There are different ways to arrange the tiles but it's harder than it looks. Good luck!

Pentominoes Game Answers

This is one arrangement – there are more!

